

AAMFT MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

Policy and Advocacy: AAMFT is the primary advocate for the profession, and the primary force for advancing the practice of family therapy at a national level. Our staff and leaders meet regularly with legislators and principals of health care organizations to persuade them that family therapy works, and that family therapists should be accepted throughout the healthcare system.

Family Therapy Resources.net: AAMFT's online resource for information concerning a wide range of marriage and family therapy topics.

TherapistLocator.net: Clinical Members receive a free listing that they can personalize with practice and biographical information and a photograph. The AAMFT regularly advertises the service to the media and the public.

AAMFT.org: Your professional home on-line has an abundant amount of information. From helpful practice information to the latest in research.

On-Line Networking Directory: Use the directory, located at www.aamft.org, to make referrals to other AAMFT members. This directory includes Student and Associate members and can be accessed only by AAMFT members.

Division Membership: AAMFT divisions advocate for members on the state and local level and offer a variety of networking opportunities.

AAMFT-CA Connection: California Division members receive email announcements about job opportunities and intern placements throughout the state.

Resources to Keep You Informed: AAMFT members automatically receive a free subscription to the Family Therapy Magazine, AAMFT's bimonthly publication. Family Therapy Magazine reports on current events and clinical developments in the MFT profession and in the mental health community. The quarterly Journal of Marital and Family Therapy (JMFT) known worldwide for its incisive coverage of current marriage and family therapy theory and clinical practice, qualitative and quantitative research, and training, is a free member benefit. Members also receive the CA Division Newsletter, a quarterly publication containing articles and news of particular interest to California MFTs.

Practice Tools: AAMFT members receive discounts on all products..

AAMFT Training on Tape: Choose from hundreds of audio and videotapes from AAMFT annual conferences by clicking here. Discounts apply to AAMFT members.

Job Connection: Anyone can post a job, but searching the national listings is an exclusive AAMFT member benefit.

Ethical Advisory Opinions: The AAMFT's Ethics Department provides ethics information based on the AAMFT Code of Ethics. Contact AAMFT at ethics@aamft.org for a free consultation.

Legal Consultation: AAMFT Clinical members who need consultation on legal matters relating to their professional practice of marriage and family therapy can consult with the AAMFT legal representative free of charge. To make an appointment to seek legal consultation, please call (703) 253-0471 or visit www.aamft.org and click on Legal and Ethics Information.

Professional Liability Insurance: For more information about liability insurance and CPH and Associates call (800)875-1911, e-mail info@cphins.com, or visit: www.cphins.com.