

SACRAMENTO STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF EDUCATION - TEACHER PREPARATION PROGRAMS SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM INFORMATION

There are numerous scholarship and aid opportunities available to students in the Sacramento State College of Education teacher preparation programs. Please read the following information so that you may gain a sense of the scholarship and aid that best meets your situation and qualifications.

General Financial Aid Information: Scholarships and aid programs are administered by the Financial Aid Office. To obtain information about applying for financial aid at Sacramento State, please visit the website: <http://www.csus.edu/faid/>. Also, please note that the first step to access any form of financial aid is to complete a FAFSA (<http://www.fafsa.ed.gov>). The FAFSA deadline for loans, state, federal and university grants is March 1, 2012. That deadline is extended for scholarships and some other programs; therefore, if you miss the March 1, 2012 deadline, apply as soon as possible thereafter.

College of Education Teacher Preparation Scholarships

The College of Education offers several scholarship opportunities to students enrolled in our teacher preparation programs. Awards vary from $150 to $2,000. Below is a brief description of the scholarships available. Please be aware that not all scholarships may be available each semester. In addition, please note that specific departments in the College of Education offer scholarship opportunities to their students who are not enrolled in an initial teaching credential program; please consult with department offices or webpage's for information on these department-specific scholarships.

Applications for teacher preparation scholarships are available in Eureka Hall room 209 or online at the College of Education website: www.edweb.csus.edu/scholarships/. The deadline for applying for scholarships is 5:00 p.m. on MARCH 16, 2012.

Only one (1) application is needed for all scholarships. Please take special care to fill out the informational portion of the application accurately as this will affect the selection process. Applicants need to submit the completed application with all accompanying materials to Eureka Hall room 209 by March 16, 2012. A review of all applications is then done by the College's Professional Development, Community and Student Achievement (PDCSA) Committee. Based on scholarship criteria, applicant information and qualifications, scholarship award recipients will be recommended. (Please Note: Minimum GPA requirements refer to all work completed at the time of application.) Award recipients recommended by the PDCSA Committee are then reviewed by the Financial Aid Office for student eligibility. Decisions will be announced in mid-July. Scholarship recipients must attend an orientation, write a letter to their sponsor and attend a reception. Funds will be disbursed from Financial Aid during the month of September.

Please Note: In order to be considered for scholarships students MUST HAVE A COMPLETED FAFSA (<http://www.fafsa.ed.gov>) on file in the Financial Aid Office.

For further information or questions regarding College of Education scholarships and financial aid opportunities for Teacher Preparation Program students, please check our website, <http://www.csus.edu/teach> or contact Elizabeth Christian, Credential Analyst Office, EUR 209, Monday – Friday 10-12 and 1-5, (916) 278-5553, email: echristian@csus.edu.
